

Films on Demand: Master Academic Package

Film and video is a wonderful way to enrich lectures and engage our students. Films on Demand is an excellent collection of documentaries and academic films that provides easy access and copyright clearance to some amazing titles. Check out some of the producers below – this is just a sample of the resources available.

To access Films on Demand:

- <https://depts.luzerne.edu/library>
- click on “digital resources” on left
- click on “ebooks and media”
- Choose Films on Demand
